

Genesis 48

1. What does Jacob testify about?
2. What does he do with Joseph's sons?
3. What was Jacob about to do with his hands?
4. How did place his hands?
5. Who was in control?
6. What three things was God praised for?
7. What is indicated by the burial request?

God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk,
the God which fed me all my life long unto this day,
The Angel which redeemed me from all evil

Ephraim is to be greater than Menasseh. Joshua, the successor of Moses, was of the tribe of Ephraim, as Kaleb his companion was of Judah. Ephraim came to designate the northern kingdom of the ten tribes, as Judah denoted the southern kingdom containing the remaining tribes; and each name was occasionally used to denote all Israel, with a special reference to the prominent part.
